

Spirits and the River: Whiskey in Ohio and Kentucky

Saturday, November 19, 2022, 1:00 pm – 2:00pm

Join Jim Williams and hear the stories of whiskey and it's connection to the Ohio River and the states of Ohio and Kentucky. You will hear how Flatboats, Keelboats and Steamboats played a part in making Bourbon Whiskey, and in 1964 the United States Congress declared bourbon whiskey a "distinctive product of the United States," and you might even hear a few ghost stories. Presented at the Madeira Library in partnership with the Madeira Historical Society.

For Adults
No registration required.

Cincinnati & Hamilton County
Public Library: Madeira
7200 Miami Ave
513.369.6028
CincinnatiLibrary.org