

Miller House Museum

The Madeira Historical Society was founded a little more than fifty years ago, in 1972, to preserve the history of Madeira. We have accumulated many unique historical documents, photographs, and artifacts, which we use to help educate adults and children of all ages.

The Miller House Museum is a Sears and Roebuck home built in 1922. Elizabeth Miller, who resided in this home beginning in 1948, donated the home and surrounding grounds to our organization in the year 1998. In 2004, The Madeira Historical Society moved in, and since then has housed and displayed our historical treasures in numerous ways. We have also preserved the 1922 home.

The Madeira Historical Society is always in need of new members to help support our endeavors, to increase history awareness, and sometimes to help to maintain the Miller House Museum and grounds.

Please consider becoming a member of your Historical Society by filling out the form below.
